

EARLY CAREER TRAINEE PROGRAM 2023

Function Applied for :- Information Technology

Duration

- 15 months (12 Months rotational IT stints & 3 months role-based training)

Program Overview

- Involves extensive training to have a holistic understanding of organisation
- Robust on-the-job training coupled with HUL's focus on capability development will groom trainees to take leadership roles in future.
- This will strengthen their functional skills, help them build a strong network and give them a solid foundation to begin their career.
- Build in-depth understanding of Information Technology operations at Unilever.
- Working with cutting edge technologies
- Exposure to several projects to build functional and business acumen
- Opportunity to network within the business
- Post successful completion of training period, the trainee will take charge as Sr Executive IT

Application Enrolment :

- Good academic track record
- B.E (Computer Science, Electrical, Information Technology, Information Science & Electronics)
- Projects Completed and good extra curricular activities
- Willing to work in any location

What's in it for me:

- Opportunity to work with one of the Dream Employers in FMCG sector
- Opportunity to work across different service lines like Data & Analytics, R&D, Supply chain, ERPs etc.
- Experience the entire lifecycle of an IT service implementation.
- Opportunity to build a strong foundation in your field at the start of your career
- Competitive and attractive package

